

Ansay Internship Program

The Ansay Internship Program provides hands-on, industry and career specific experience throughout the summer months and during school breaks. Interns have the opportunity to learn more about different career avenues within insurance, all while receiving compensation for their time spent learning and working on projects.

The comprehensive program allows students to shadow employees, go out on appointments with the Sales team, meet the Executive Leadership team, and return each summer - with an opportunity to join the agency upon graduation.

Interns can expect the following components of the program, and a full overview of the industry.
